

International PhD Course on Developmental Language Impairment, Aalborg, Denmark

Preconference Course for International Conference on Language Impairment in Monolingual and Bilingual Society
– LIMoBiS <http://limobis.aau.dk/>

September 27th & 28th 2010

Cognitive Psychology Unit, Aalborg University, Kroghstræde 3, 9220 Aalborg

Organisers: Kristine Jensen de López and Lone Sundahl Olsen (PhD)

Programme:

Monday September 27th

9:00-10:15	Registration & Welcome by Kristine Jensen de López
10:15-11:30	Boundaries between language impairment and autism in children Dr. Dorothy V. Bishop (Department of Experimental Psychology, Oxford University)
11:30-12:30	Discussions in groups
13:00-14:00	Lunch
14:00-15:15	What do gestures tell us about infants' early communicative competences and how to link to atypical language development? Dr. Kristine Jensen de López (Institute of Communication & Psychology, Aalborg University)
15:15-17:00	Discussions in groups
17:00-17:15	Closing remarks

Tuesday September 28th

- |             |   |
|-------------|---|
| 9:00-9:15   | Good Morning  |
| 9:15-10:30  | Designing on-line sentence processing experiments for children with SLIDr. Theodore Marinis (Clinical Language Sciences, University of Reading)       |
| 10:45-12:15 | Discussions in groups   |
| 12:15-13:15 | Lunch   |
| 13:15-14:30 | Children learning two languages sequentially: what's typical?Dr. Kathryn Kohnert (Dept. of Speech Language Hearing Sciences, University of Minnesota) |
| 14:30-16:15 | Discussions in groups   |
| 16:15-17:00 | Final round table discussion: What did we learn? Open questions   |